

This is a different world. All of the technological advances. Why are you playing by old rules? It's time to change the rules to align with the latest advances in technology. We should be allowed to listen to what we want, be it satellite radio or whatever. Keep XM local.